

TWEENHILLS studlife

An eye for success

October 2019

visit studlife online:
tweenhills.com/studlife

GOODBYE ALEX, WELCOME ALICE!

Alex Lowe (right) has left Tweenhills for pastures new – to join fiancé Tom Ward in his new career as a trainer – and we wish her the very best of luck. Alex was excellent in her Nominations and Client Relations role, which has been filled by Alice Thurtle (left). Alice joins us from the TBA.

THE LION SLEEPS

Just days after the September issue went to print we had to announce that Roaring Lion had been put to sleep at Cambridge Stud in New Zealand. As you can imagine, all concerned with the horse were absolutely devastated. Rest in peace, champ.

STAFF PROFILE

Tom King
Stallion Manager

Tell us about your new role...

I started with the stallions two years ago and will still be hands-on. However, I will also be involved in the office, contributing to the Tweenhills social media and website, as well as building relationships with breeders.

How is life on the stud?

Obviously the loss of Lion leaves a big void, and for myself it was particularly upsetting as we got to know him as a character; he was kind-natured and easy-going. We must now look forward as a team.

Give us some horses to follow...

Charm Spirit has some exciting prospects in New Zealand such as Gr.2 winner Aretha who will be contesting the top 3yo Gr.1s. In Europe, homebred Afraid of Nothing looks very useful. Zoustar sired two new Gr.2 winners Mizzy and Zoutori.

TWEENHILLS FILLY RUNS WILD

The Tweenhills Fillies syndicate – newly formed for 2019 – had its first winner when Run Wild lived up to her name, scoring by six lengths at Kempton. She has since finished a fantastic fourth in the Gr.2 May Hill Stakes at Doncaster and is an exciting prospect for 2020.

Osian Murphy meeting and greeting in the Tweenhills box on QIPCO Irish Champions Day

Another Tweenhills team BBQ!

Tweenhills, Hartpury, Gloucestershire, GL19 3BG

W: www.tweenhills.com T: + 44 (0) 1452 700177 M: + 44 (0) 7767 436373 E: davidredvers@tweenhills.com