Welcome to our 2017 brochure

David Redvers
November 2016

2016 has been an epic year for us at Tweenhills. Professionally we have continued to make improvements and additions to the farm. We have opened a new reception and offices, improved facilities on the stud and acquired neighbouring land.

On a personal front we are finally in the house and have worked out how to turn most things on and off. I'm definitely not claiming that it has been a seamless transition, but it feels like home and Laura, I and the children love being in the house and heart of the farm.

This has also been a year for adventure and taking part in the Mongol Derby and a charity race at Aintree reminded me that racing is meant to be fun as well as work. Parts of that Mongolian adventure were definitely more fun in retrospect but that's what made it a worthwhile challenge and it was tremendous to share it with Sheikh Fahad and our team.

With the return from France of our flagship stallion Charm Spirit and the first viewing of his foals at the sales, there is a sense of huge anticipation. As I write this at Goffs November Sales, Stephen Collins of Shadwell has just signed the docket on Charm Spirit's second foal through the ring at €100k. Next week at Tattersalls we expect fireworks and knowing the strength in depth of his stock at Tweenhills there will be a lot of happy breeders to have used him. He's a repeat business stallion with a huge future.

2017 cannot come quick enough and with Hot Streak's first foals, Havana Gold's first runners and Harbour Watch's first three year olds, I'm in danger of wishing time away. The wheel turns slowly when you have so much to look forward to but these horses have the credentials to make time fly.

None of this would be happening without Sheikh Fahad's enthusiasm and passion for our sport and we are lucky that he found us and embraced racing so wholeheartedly. To see him win the Newmarket Town Plate as a jockey this year was like winning a classic and it was tremendous to see the reward for all he does for our game. Whilst that was a personal victory, it is also hugely rewarding to see the success that Qipco's sponsorship has helped bring to British Champions Day at Ascot in October. He and his brothers are rightly proud of the difference their sponsorship has made and that golden afternoon in October is now a firm favourite in every racing fan's calendar.

Whilst Sheikh Fahad and his brothers invest huge capital and energy into our business, it's my team that ensure the wheels turn and I am ever aware that without Hannah, Ben, Bryony, Karen, David, Mikey, Victoria, Graham, Alex and Werner and all of those that back us up at Tweenhills, things would grind to a halt. I am lucky enough to have a magic team, and in a very small way this brochure celebrates what they do, right down to the pride that Charlie takes in sweeping and aerating the paddocks. These things give me great hope for the long term future of the business.

We look forward to welcoming you in 2017.

Plus a £25,000 bonus for breeders of Dunaden's Stakes winning two and three-year-olds in Britain, Ireland and France.

Tweenhills lies between the Malvern Hills and the River Severn in prime horse and cattle country.

Now covering over 650 acres of the finest permanent pasture, the paddocks at Tweenhills and surrounding farms are sheltered by ancient hedgerows and magnificent oaks. They are farmed in strict rotation with our resident Aberdeen Angus suckler herd of over 160 cattle and during the winter months the farm is grazed extensively by sheep. Indeed, Tweenhills has diversified recently and is now supplying Premiership side Gloucester Rugby with its beef.

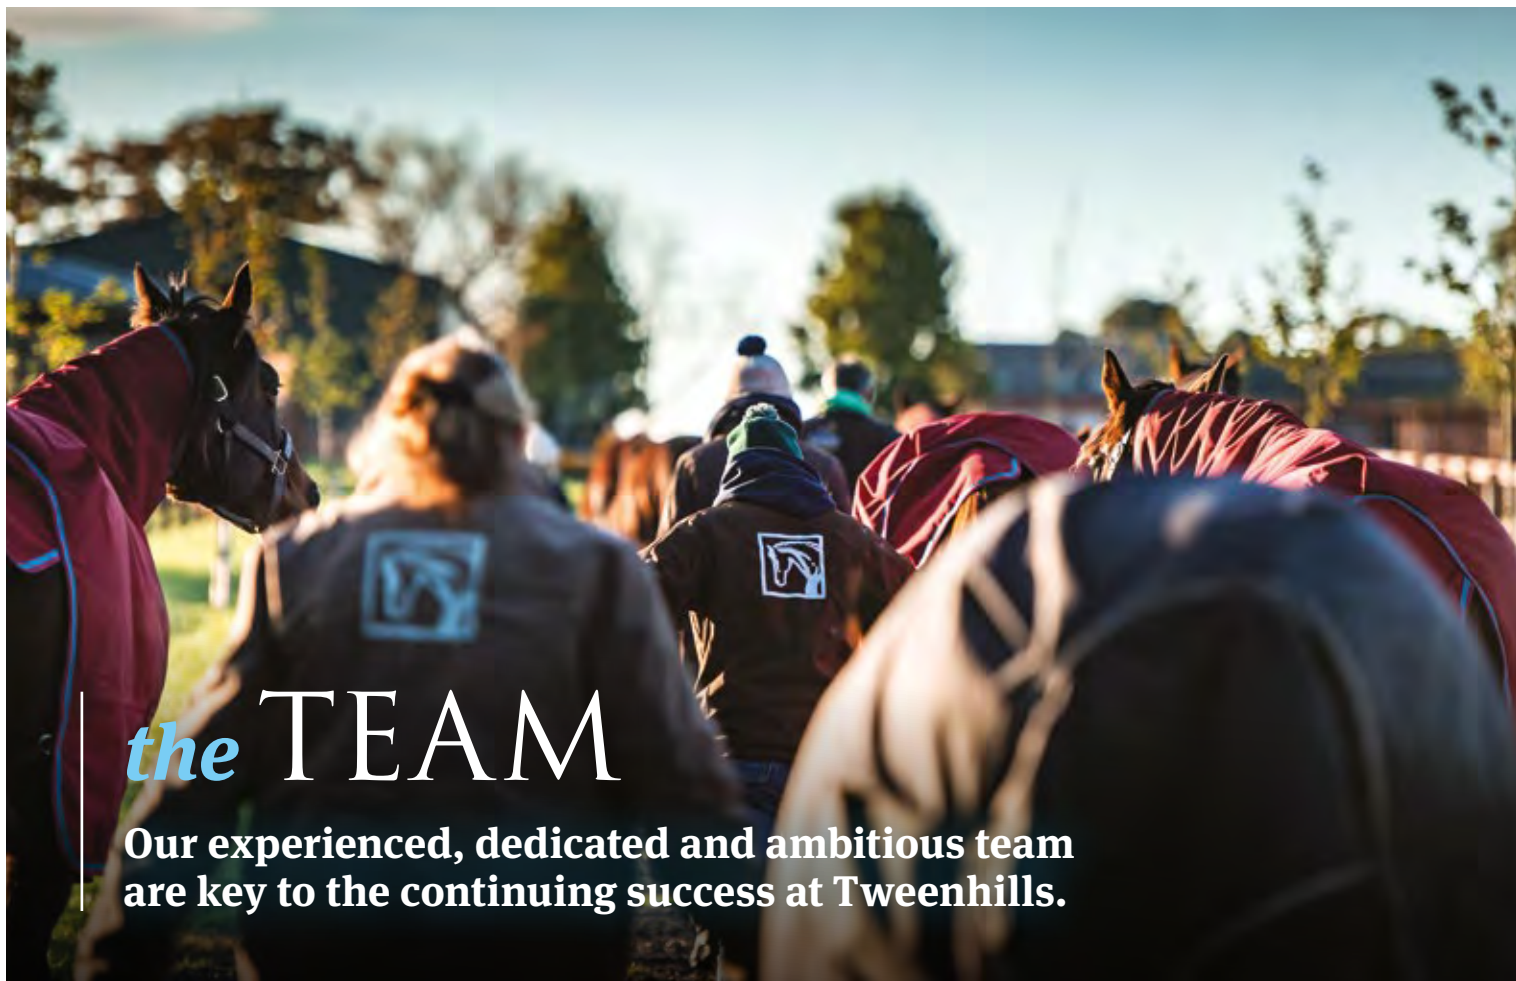

Since the conversion of Tweenhills to a public stud in 1995, four neighbouring properties have been added. Corsend Farm, Chargy Hill Farm, Catsbury and Slopers Farm and together they provide the finest stock rearing land.

Tweenhills Farm is home to the stallion unit and visiting mares, Corsend Farm houses our modern foaling unit and Chargy Hill is kept predominantly as a young stock farm with a range of winter barns. Slopers Farm houses our calving unit and is retained as the private stud for resident mares and foals. A twelve box isolation unit was recently installed at Catsbury.

Several outdoor arenas with Polytrack surface have been added over the past few years for winter turnout. We have recently opened our new stud office and reception area. An eight horse covered walker, nursery paddocks, roadway and winter turnout barns were also added in 2016.

All together we have an excellent world class facility on this, the most fertile of ground.
