Welcome to the 2018 Tweenhills brochure

David Redvers
November 2018

It is every stallion manager's dream to discover the next hot sire. Havana Gold is that horse and as we go in to the winter there is a spring in everyone's step both here at Tweenhills and in the Qatar Racing organisation as a whole.

We are obviously thrilled by the results of his first two-year-old crop but as Havana Gold improved significantly himself from two to three, one has to be optimistic that his progeny will emulate him. With another exciting bunch to enter training, the support of most of the major racing organisations and his best ever book of mares in 2018, Havana Gold's prospects look very bright indeed.

With Harbour Watch sadly retired and Charm Spirit away in France at Haras de Bonneval as part of our ongoing arrangement with the Aga Khan Studs, Hot Streak's first foals take centre stage. They will not disappoint and with his first foal selling at Goffs for €56,000, breeders who supported him are being very well rewarded. It's hard to overstate the talent this horse possessed as one of the fastest two-year-olds seen in recent years, who notably trained on. We can't wait to see these rockets on the track as they are made in his image.

In the last 12 months Tweenhills has continued to grow and develop. We have added another 120 acres of quality pasture, built more barns and put in an all-weather exercise ring, whilst our Aberdeen Angus herd grows and grows under the eye of our passionate farm manager Werner Aucamp.

Nothing can happen without a committed and hard-working team and Tweenhills continues to thrive due to the dedication and enthusiasm of all those who work here in the offices, out in the yard and on the farm. This is matched only by the passion for our sport and the bloodstock business shown by Sheikh Fahad, whose efforts and investment are rewarded both in his own race-riding exploits and in those of his exciting two-year-olds who look stars of the future – Roaring Lion, Military Law, Kings Shield and King And Empire to name a few. With luck, at least one of them will be joining Havana Gold and Hot Streak in another stage of their careers, having like them carried those famous claret and gold colours to further notable success.

“Havana Gold is a great horse with the best temperament for a racehorse. He always tries his best, has a huge heart and the turn of foot of a champion.”

Mickael Barzalona,
Jockey, Gr.1 Prix Jean Prat

“Havana Gold was a fantastic horse to train. He was as tough as teak, wonderfully consistent and a top class performer who never let us down.”

Racing Post

“Havana Grey is one of the fastest 2yos I have trained, if not the fastest. Apart from his obvious speed he has a great constitution, great attitude to work, and has been a very sound horse. I very much look forward to having him in training next year and I am sure he will be contesting all the top European sprints.”

Bred by Coln Valley Stud

Trainer: William Haggas

“I have been very impressed watching Havana Gold’s two-year-old’s perform so well this year, they seem to have plenty of speed, and we had a very good first time winner called Tabdeed who looks a Stakes class horse for next year. I was delighted to buy three more yearlings at the sales to look forward to next year.”

Angus Gold,
Shadwell

“I have always loved Havana Gold since he retired to stud. The combination of Galileo and Danehill and a really fast filly in Jessica’s Dream gave him a special chance. He consistently produces really well conformed, fast-looking foals, like himself. I have heard numerous trainers tell me what great temperaments they have. Most of all, lots of them have plenty of talent. His star can only go in one direction.”

The Farm

Tweenhills has long been regarded as one of the finest stock farms in the Ledbury country in north west Gloucestershire.

Tweenhills lies between the Malvern Hills and the River Sever in prime stock-rearing land famed for its cattle and horses.

The farm now covers approximately 750 acres of prime pasture and the paddocks at Tweenhills and its surrounding farms are sheltered by ancient hedgerows and magnificent oaks. Every acre is farmed in rotation with our resident Aberdeen Angus suckler herd and during the winter months the farm is grazed extensively by sheep. We also grow all our own oats and barley, and cut and make the vast majority of our own hay and haylage.

Since the conversion of Tweenhills to a public stud in 1995 we have added five neighbouring organic dairy farms. Corsend Farm was the first added and is now home to our foaling unit, whilst Chargy Hill is predominantly a yearling farm and Catsbury is home to our isolation unit. Elsewhere we are now renting Slopers Farm and Welton

Farm and Stud in the village. The latter was famous in the 1980s and 90s as a home to Sam and Linda Barr's Welton eventing stallions. However, for the last decade it has been part of an organic dairy farm and now provides perfect winter turnout with its large airy barns and well drained banks.

In recent years we have added several outdoor all-weather paddocks, new winter barns, offices and a reception and have just completed a 3-furlong all-weather trotting ring for foal, yearling and stallion exercise and as a canter for pre-training.

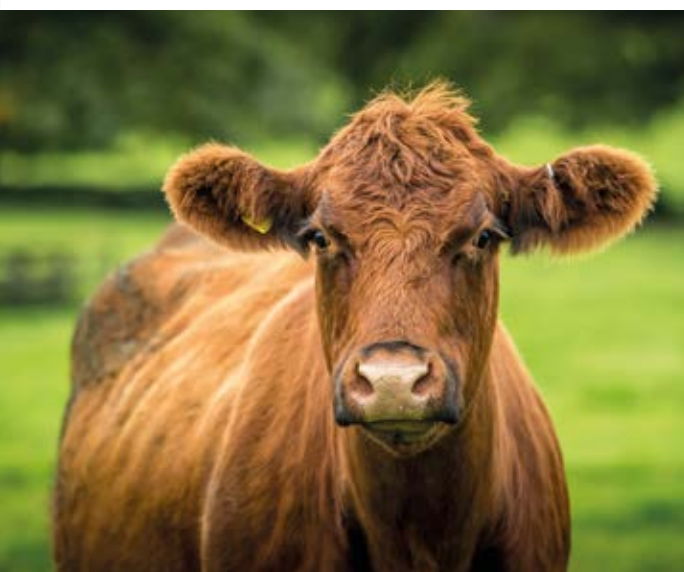

Tweenhills is a world-class facility based on the most fertile of ground.

Tweenhills Angus

Tweenhills currently has 220 Aberdeen Angus cattle including two resident bulls.

Strengthening the bond with Gloucester Rugby

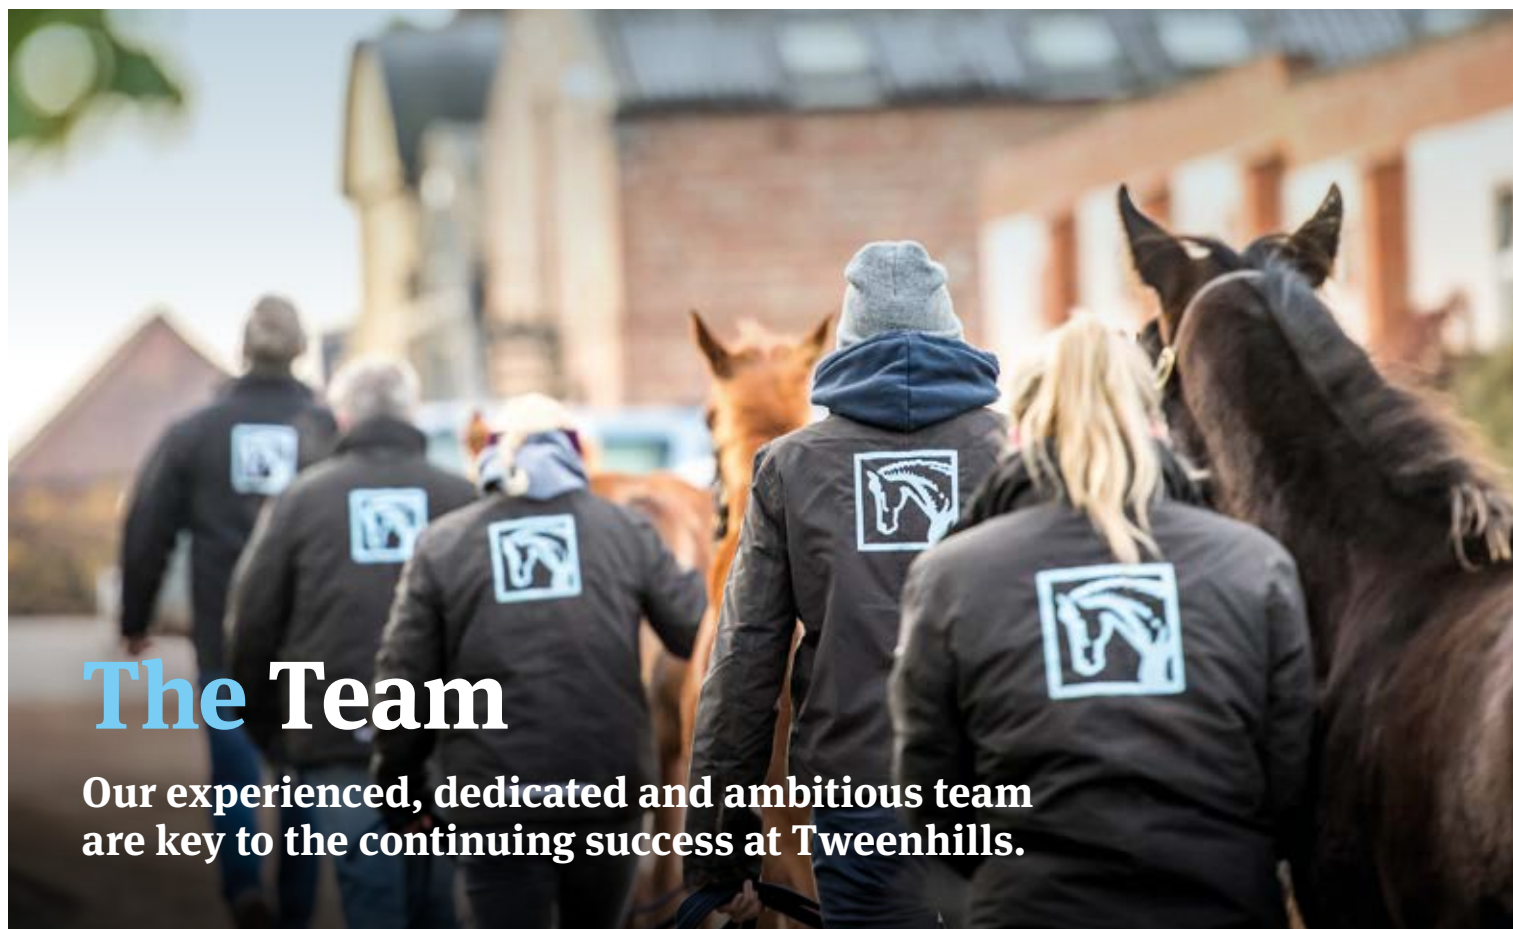

At Tweenhills we take great pride in our Aberdeen Angus suckler herd and two resident Red Angus bulls, Oaklea Red Graduate and Mosshall Red Hero.

In association with butcher Ben Creese we now supply several restaurants, including the Michelin starred Butchers Arms, with the finest beef and are also particularly pleased with our tie up with local premiership team Gloucester Rugby, who train at Hartpury College across the fields from the farm. We sponsor a Gloucester 'Man of The Match' award and are pleased to report that since performance chef Will Carvahlo started feeding the players on our magnificent beef the players have gone unbeaten at home and are steadily climbing up the table. The arrival of new head coach Johan Ackermann is surely just a coincidence!

In September we hosted our first family barbecue for players and coaching staff and their families, and the team had the opportunity to meet our team and learn a little about what happens next door. Gloucester Rugby and Tweenhills Angus will continue to go from strength to strength!

The Team

Our experienced, dedicated and ambitious team are key to the continuing success at Tweenhills.

TWEENHILLS TIMES

AN EYE FOR SUCCESS

NOVEMBER 2017

HAVANA GOLD COLTS SHINE

Four colts from the second crop of Tweenhills stallion Havana Gold were sold for six-figure sums at Tattersalls' Book 2 Sale in Newmarket in October...

Havana Gold is a Grade-Ast Grey colt (breed): Tattersalls

Sheikh Hamdan Al Maktoum's Shadwell Estates Company bought these for a combined 550,000 guineas. They included a Coln Valley Stud-consigned colt out of Grace And Gloria, a full sister to four-time Gr. 1 winner Fame And Glory secured for 250,000 guineas. Sheikh Hamdan is already the owner of an exciting Havana Gold colt in Tabard.

Another keen Havana Gold supporter - for very good reason - is trainer Karl Burke who just 140,000 guineas for a champion half brother to his Gr. 1 winner and Gr. 2-placed juvenile Havana Grey. Like his older brother, the colt was consigned by Muckery Stud.

Havana Gold's 2018 stud fee is £15,000. October 1st ST, which looks extraordinarily good value based on these results.

STAFF PROFILE

Nick Tidyman
Assistant Farm Manager

Leaving friends...
I've been working on and off for Tweenhills for five years. I used to do a lot of agricultural contracting and then David - who I've known for 20 years - suggested I become a permanent member of the team. I work closely with Farm Manager Warner Aspinall and it's brilliant, we'll be at it!

Helping drive progress...
I really enjoy the fact that Tweenhills is progressing and David is doing so well. It's certainly changed a heck of a lot since the Lady Rebecca days - and it was fascinating to see the final book. Mary O'Connor, return to the racecourse recently. It's great to be part of a successful team.

Outside of work...
I play rugby for Woolbury-in-Seventon and do a lot of deer stalking, often with David which is always great fun. I've married to Tonya - who has also worked at Tweenhills - and we are the proud parents of a little boy and little girl, Samuel and Elsie. Samuel loves coming to Tweenhills to feed and get the dog feed.

GLoucester RUGBY COMES TO TWEENHILLS

On Saturday 30 September, the Gloucester Rugby squad, coaches, managers and their families came to Tweenhills for a BBQ Family Day.

Gloucester Rugby Performance Chief Will Carvalho feeds the team on Tweenhills' Aberdeen Angus Beef and he cooked everything at the event on the BBQ. The team got to see where the beef comes from, which is next door to Hartbury College where they train every day.

The team event that night
Tweenhills' stallions were paraded, as were just. The Judge and her Dubawi half and Simple Verse, and more fun was provided by a booby under face painting and balloon sculpting. What's more, Qatar Racing's two-year-old colt Roaring Lion celebrated his unbeaten record in the Gr. 2 Royal Lodge Stakes at Newmarket the same afternoon.

SHEIKH FAHAD DOUBLES UP

Sheikh Fahad won the final leg of the Cornish Challenge Charity Race Series at Leopardstown on Sunday October 22 for the second year running.

After taking the corresponding race on Ladies in 2016, Sheikh Fahad again successfully teamed up with Gordon Elliott when riding his own Gratal to victory. The success gave Qatar Racing and the trainer a charity race double as Palsauator had won the John Shortt Legends Challenge Race at Punchestown only days before under Norman Williamson.

Sheikh Fahad wins on Gratal (breed): Leopardstown 1/2
