Tweenhills | 2023 stallions

If you love what you do, then the saying goes that you never do a day's work in your life. If you are reading this then it's likely that you know what I mean. This is a truly vocational world.

Working in the breeding business we ensure that the next generation of equine athletes are safely conceived, delivered and raised to perform at the highest level with all the benefits of world-class care. This brought me to wondering, why, when we bestow such a level of nurture for the next generation of racehorses, are we not doing more to ensure that the next generation of racing fans are so nourished? There's no getting away from it being our responsibility to engage the next generation.

Tweenhills has proudly sponsored the pony racing in the area for several years and through Sheikh Fahad and QIPCO's sponsorship of the British Champions Series (BCS) and Champions Day, we are actively working with BCS and Great British Racing International (GBRI) to engage younger audiences and demonstrate to them the possibilities that horseracing and the bloodstock world might hold for them. Look after the young now and the future is in safe hands.

We have a similar strategy with the stud and, if you take a look at our Team page in this brochure, you'll see so many young and motivated faces. We're incredibly proud of our young team and the leadership and inspiration they take from Piet, Ivo, Graham, Marie and Scott. They all have great careers ahead of them.

The stallions are all taking great strides forward as well with Zoustar looking every inch as exciting here as he did at the same stage in Australia; Havana Gold proving a rare and incredibly valuable and dependable sire of sires and Stakes winners; Lightning Spear making a huge statement with 63% winners to runners, considering how much better he became as he matured; and finally, Kameko who looks the most exciting of the lot. Just take a moment to remind yourself how good he was on the racetrack before you look at his foals and then it all looks pretty obvious.

None of this would be possible without Sheikh Fahad's continued drive and passion, and it was truly wonderful to see him rewarded with three Gr.1 winners in 2022 in Ocean Road, Mangoustine and Caravel, the last-named his third winner at this year's Breeders Cup meeting when making all in the Turf Sprint. We cannot wait for 2023 as Zoustar's three-year-olds hit the track and those enigmatic Roaring Lions who have shown such promise at two, reach their potential.

Finally, it is so rewarding seeing our breeders doing so well on the track and our Your Success = Our Success initiative is really starting to kick in with a barely credible three Gr.1 winners this year alone, including the outstanding European Champion 2YO Filly of 2022 in Lezoo. Now we are cooking!

The Farm & Tweenhills Angus

In addition to Tweenhills developing its reputation as an outstanding stallion station and farm, every acre is farmed in rotation with our resident Aberdeen Angus suckler herd numbering 200.

Tweenhills Angus Beef is produced from the grass-fed herd and expertly prepared and packed by the farm's local butcher. Among the regular clients of Tweenhills Angus Beef are Gloucester Rugby Club and a number of local restaurants. It is also used by the Tweenhills Angus Burger Van which helps to raise funds for Racing Welfare at the Tattersalls December Sales. The beef has a wonderful rich depth of flavour with a fine marbling texture that the Aberdeen Angus is renowned for.

“Rawburn E Type is a real eye catcher. His performance combination of calving ease, growth and feed efficiency is unique and exactly what we are finding the commercial breeder is looking for.”

John Elliot
Rawburn Aberdeen Angus

Rawburn E Type

In addition to the purchase of one of the top Aberdeen Angus bulls Rawburn E Type, 2022 saw the Tweenhills Angus compete on the County Show circuit. Tweenhills Red Phoenix, shown by Farm Manager Werner Aucamp were the winners of classes at the Royal Three Counties Show and were also placed at the Aberdeen Angus Cattle Society National Summer Show at the Royal Norfolk Show.
